El Lluçanès

Where time stands still and the land speaks

An ideal destination to disconnect from digital pressure and reconnect with silence and calm

More than a destination, El Lluçanès is a state of mind. Located in the heart of Catalonia, among rolling landscapes and villages that move to the rhythm of the seasons, we offer you a place where time slows down. We are a mosaic of farmhouses, livestock trails and a heritage that has been carefully preserved to offer you an authentic and peaceful experience.

Welcome to the heart of Territori Serè

A land to be enjoyed without rushing

Take a deep breath

Our viewpoints are more than just high points — they are open windows onto a rolling landscape where your gaze can rest and silence takes on meaning.

360° panoramic views await you, stretching from the Pyrenees to La Plana de Vic.

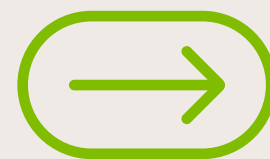

The Romanesque jewels of El Lluçanès

In the heart of Catalonia, El Lluçanès preserves a heritage that has endured through the centuries without losing its essence. This is a land of rural Romanesque art near Barcelona, where every chapel and every capital tells a story of serenity and architectural purity. From the Monastery of Santa Maria de Lluçà to the circular-plan hermitage of Sant Vicenç del Castell, we invite you on a journey into the roots of our identity — one you can also explore through a specially designed game to discover the Romanesque treasures of El Lluçanès.

Where can you find them?

Explore a territory shaped by time and transhumance. With more than 200 kilometres of paths and routes, El Lluçanès is the ideal refuge for those seeking an authentic adventure, far from crowds and in complete harmony with rural life.

Routes and trails

Hiking

From family-friendly routes to short and long-distance trails, enjoy peaceful walks that invite meditation and the discovery of hidden corners of our heritage.

Cycling tourism

We are a paradise for gravel riding, road cycling and mountain biking. Scenic tracks and quiet roads await you to be explored at your own pace — whether you are looking for a sporting challenge or a relaxed e-bike ride.

Equestrian routes

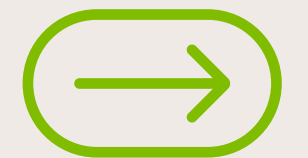

El Lluçanès is also a leading destination for equestrian tourism, with official routes that allow you to discover the landscape and its history from a privileged perspective.

El Lluçanès is not meant to be explained but discovered step by step. We propose a selection of twelve treasures that define our identity: from the purity of Romanesque art to the strength of traditional blacksmithing.

They are places of calm, designed to be visited with respect and without watching the clock.
